

Ventura County lawyer given Eagle Scout Award

By Mayerson Marketing
YourHub.com user

The Ventura County Council of the Boy Scouts of America honored Tony Trembley, managing partner of Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP, with the Fritz Huntsinger Jr. Distinguished Eagle Scout Award on May 16 at the Ronald Reagan Library in Simi Valley. The award recognizes a prominent Eagle Scout in Ventura County who has demonstrated success in business, community service and Scouting.

"I am honored to be recognized by this organization, which taught me so much about the importance of community service," Trembley said.

Trembley is in his 23rd year of law practice and specializes in public agency and environmental law. He represents several school districts and special districts in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. He is a member of the State Bar of California and the Ventura County Bar Association. Trembley serves on the Ventura County community board of directors for Catholic Healthcare West. He also is a past director and current chair of the Camarillo Chamber of Commerce. Trembley studied at Trinity College in Dublin, Ireland, and received his B.A. with highest honors from UC Davis. He also received his J.D. from UC Davis, where he served as an editor of the UC Davis Law Review and was a member of the National Trial Competition Team. Prior to obtaining his law degree, he was an assembly fellow with the California Legislature and an executive assistant to a state legislator.

For more than 65 years, Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP attorneys have represented a variety of influential clients who have helped shape the Ventura County community. The Oxnard-based firm provides legal services in business and corporate litigation, employment, business and commercial law, real estate and land use, environmental, oil and gas, administrative and local government law, taxation, estate planning and intellectual property law. Clients include individuals, national and international corporations, small businesses, municipalities and public agencies. For more information, visit www.nchc.com.

Tony Trembley, managing partner of Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP