

Local News

Local Employment Law Attorney To Speak At National Institute of Restoration Conference

OXNARD, Calif.--Jonathan Fraser Light, senior part-ner with Ventura County's largest law firm, Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP, will address employment law issues and trade secret protection at the National Institute of Restoration's 17th Annual Executive Leadership Conference, June 30-July 1. The conference will be held at the Westin Crown Center in Kansas City, Mo.

"In the hectic business of cleaning up disasters, day-to-day human resources practices can fall behind," Light said. "Employers should keep up with the latest employment laws to avoid litigation."

Light will discuss employment law issues, including human resources nightmares and how to be a good supervisor, as well as how to protect trade secrets and confidential and proprietary information.

Light has more than 23 years of experience in the field of employment law. Honored as one of Los Angeles Magazine's "California Super Lawyers," he has twice been selected for Pacific Coast Business Times' "Who's Who in Professional Services." As a senior partner at the firm, he consults with more than 200 companies throughout California on their day-to-day employment law needs and is experienced in jury trial lawsuits involving wrongful termination, sex harassment, race discrimination and other employment-related matters.

Light is a frequent lecturer and is a board member for the Ventura County Bar Association and the Discovery Center. He is a graduate of the UCLA School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review. Light is the author of the nationally acclaimed and award-winning book, The Cultural Encyclopedia of Baseball, publishing a second volume in 2005.

For more than 65 years, Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP attorneys have represented a variety of influential clients who have helped shape the Ventura County community. The Oxnard-based firm provides legal services in business and corporate litigation, employment, business and commercial law, real estate and land use, environmental, oil and gas, administrative and local government law, taxation, estate planning and intellectual property law. Clients include individuals, national and international corporations, small businesses, municipalities and public agencies. For more information, visit www.nchc.com.