

Local News

United Way Honors Nordman, Cormany, Hair & Compton Attorney

OXNARD, Calif.--The United Way of Ventura County will recognize Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP partner Karen Gabler with the Milton M. Teague Award for her overall outstanding support of United Way. The award was given at United Way's Spirit of Community Impact Awards on June 16.

Gabler is vice chair of the United Way of Ventura County's board of directors, vice chair of the board development, marketing and communications committees, serves on the administration committee and is a member and former chair of the East County Action Team. She supervised United Way's 2005 Day of Caring at The Wellness Community Valley/Ventura, was an active contributor to Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton's United Way campaign and provided in-kind legal counsel to the organization.

"The United Way is a fantastic avenue for people to get involved in our community and make an impact every day," Gabler said. "I am deeply honored to be receiving the Milton M. Teague Award, and I am very proud to work with the outstanding people who volunteer through United Way to make a difference in Ventura County."

At Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP, Gabler represents management clients in all aspects of employment advice and litigation. She conducts training for managers and employees in all areas of employment practices and policies, and is a frequent speaker on employment law topics for community groups and businesses.

Gabler is an adjunct professor of employment law at the Pepperdine University School of Law and is a member of the boards of the East Ventura County Employer Advisory Council, The Wellness Community Valley/Ventura and the Simi Valley Chamber of Commerce. She is the author of monthly employment newsletters for the Simi Valley and Moorpark Chambers of Commerce, and is the bimonthly author of an employment law column for the Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journals.

Karol Schulkin, director of the County of Ventura Human Services Agency's homeless program, and Haas Automation of Oxnard will also be honored at the event, along with community volunteers, leaders and supporters. The event took place at the Ronald Reagan Library in Simi Valley. Tickets were $125 per person and included a reception, silent and live auctions, dinner, entertainment and valet parking. Auction items included a trip to Tahiti and Bora Bora, courtesy of Pleasant Holidays.

For more than 65 years, Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton LLP attorneys have represented a variety of influential clients who have helped shape the Ventura County community. The Oxnard-based firm provides legal services in business and corporate litigation, employment, business and commercial law, real estate and land use, environmental, oil and gas, administrative and local government law, taxation, estate planning and intellectual property law. Clients include individuals, national and international corporations, small businesses, municipalities and public agencies. The firm's attorneys have a longstanding tradition of community service in Ventura County and surrounding communities. For more information, visit www.nchc.com.