

---

TOP
50 Women in Business

---

TAMIANN COOK
CEO

Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton

Tamiann Cook is a member of the executive committee of Nordman Cormany Hair & Compton, Ventura County's largest full-service law firm. Her expertise helps the firm serve hundreds of businesses and individuals across the state, continuing its 70-year tradition of offering quality legal service to its clients.

Cook is responsible for the day-to-day operations and long-term strategic planning for the firm, working closely with partners, associates and staff to create an efficient, cohesive team.

She joined the firm in 1991 as controller, was promoted to the position of chief financial officer in 1996 and became the firm's first chief executive officer in 2003.

Prior to joining NCHC, Cook worked as a senior financial analyst and auditor for an international company.

She has been involved in the Association of Legal Administrators and is an associate member of the American Bar Association's Law Practice Management section.

Cook serves on boards for local youth and nonprofit organizations including Ventura Breakers Basketball, the Parent-Teacher Association and the Ventura County Youth Basketball Conference.

She obtained her bachelor's degree in accounting from North Carolina State University.

---